Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-29, drawn to a process for reducing the concentration of water and optionally at least one impurity for a cyclosiloxane precursor, classified in class 203, subclass 41.
- II. Claims 30-44, drawn to a CVD method of depositing a low dielectric constant thin film in a substrate from a [SiO]_n cyclosiloxane precursor, classified in class 427, subclass 491.
- III. Claims 45-46, drawn to 1,3,5,7 tetramethylcyclotetrasiloxane, classified in class 556, subclass 450+

.The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case, the different inventions have different modes of operation, different functions and different effects. The group I invention is directed to a purification process whereby the concentration of water and impurities are reduced in a cyclosiloxane precursor by azeotropic and fractional distillation, not required in the group II invention; whereas, the group II invention is directed to depositing a low dielectric constant thin film on a substrate involving further the methods e.g., of annealing and plasma enhancement which are not required in the group I invention.

Inventions I & II and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as: "by hydrolysis of methyldichlorosilane to firstly form a linear siloxane polymer that is end-capped with trimethylsilyl groups" As recognized by applicants at page 3, full fourth paragraph of the specification..

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification; and the search required for Group I, II is not required for Group III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
